Gender Pay Gap Report 2025

What are the underlying causes of Ferdinand Bilstein UK Ltd.'s gender pay gap?

Under the law, men and women must receive equal pay for:

- The same or broadly similar work;
- Work rated as equivalent under a job evaluation scheme;
- or
- Work of equal value.

Ferdinand Bilstein UK Ltd are committed to the principle of equal opportunities and equal treatment for all employees, regardless of sex, race, religion or belief, age, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy/maternity/paternity, sexual orientation, gender reassignment or disability.

The management workforce is made up of a higher percentage of men than women. There is significantly more female employees working reduced hours in comparison with male employees. This has impacted the Gender Pay Gap.

What is Ferdinand Bilstein UK Ltd is doing to address its gender pay gap?

Ferdinand Bilstein UK Ltd carried out the following to help reduce our gender pay gap:

- pay and benefits audits at regular intervals;
- Evaluates job roles as necessary to ensure a fair structure.
- Provide support for women returning to work and have been actively ensuring men are aware of their shared parental leave entitlement.

Ferdinand Bilstein UK Ltd is therefore confident that its gender pay gap does not stem from paying men and women differently for the same or equivalent work. Rather its gender pay gap is the result of the roles in which men and women work within the organisation and the salaries that these roles attract.
